

Scenario - Abduction

You are the principal and have just finished observing in a classroom upstairs. As you enter the office area you see the back of a man who resembles Billy Blackwell quickly leading a student, Sarah Blackwell out the door of the school. Sarah appears to be going without coercion, Billy is the girl's biological father. As they leave the school the man picks up the girl and quickens his pace and drives off in a small red compact car. You look through your records and find that Sarah's mom and dad are divorced and Mrs. Blackwell has full custody.
