Recent Accomplishments

DC Resident Snow Team- Serve DC has improved the volunteer deployment system for 2017-2018 winter season. Please visit SNOWTEAM.DC.GOV for the DC Volunteer Snow Team registration Link. Sign up today, and “Adopt-A-Senior” who requires removal services for the duration of the winter under the Opportunities section of the site.

World Aids Day 2017- Serve DC partnered with the Mayor’s Office of LGBTQ Affairs for World Aids Day. Over 30 exhibitors set up their booths for the information fair and provided sexual health related information to attendees. Mayor Bowser and Raheem Devaughn provided remarks and an assembling of 2500 Health Kits followed. A workshop on “What is needed during an emergency for a person living with HIV and how to treat or care for a person with HIV during an emergency” was provided by DR. Goulda Downer of Howard University College of Medicine.

Toys for Tots- Serve DC partnered with The United States Marine Corps and Toys for Tots to distribute over 6000 toys to children aged 1-13 for the Christmas holiday.
